

OLV HOSPITAL
SEPTEMBER 30, 2017
AALST, BELGIUM

What really happens right after injecting the propofol

- Front-end kinetics: the first two min after injecting propofol
Michael Avram, Chicago, IL, USA

Applied cardiovascular physiology in theatre

- Measuring the cardiovascular effects of propofol anesthesia
Michael Pinsky, Pittsburgh, PA, USA

Is swing the thing?

- Responding to fluid responsiveness in the OR: do we have to?
Berthold Bein, Hamburg, Germany

Depth of anesthesia: Submarines, switchboards, and beyond

- The future of depth of anesthesia monitoring:
from probabilistic to mechanism-based monitoring
Gerhard Schneider, München, Germany

Long term inhaled agent administration

- Inhaled agent neurotoxicity after prolonged administration
Andrew Kofke, Philadelphia, PA, USA

As closed as it gets

- Intravenous sevoflurane
Robert Pearce, Madison, WI, USA

Inhaled agent sedation

- Automated low flow sedation
Javier Belda, Valencia, Spain

How to reduce inhaled agent waste with any ventilator

- The ANACONDA
Andreas Meiser, Homburg, Germany
- The MIRUS
Hagen Bomberg, Homburg, Germany
- The RIVAL
Joseph Fisher, Toronto, Canada

Date	Saturday September 30, 2017
Time	09:00 – 16:30h
Place	OLV Hospital, Aalst, Belgium
Fee	M.D., industry 120 € ESA, BVAR, STA and SIZ member 80 € Resident & nurse 40 € Onsite registration (cash only) + 40€
Details	www.navat.org
Inquiries	jcnwahendrickx@yahoo.com

Director	Jan Hendrickx	Aalst, Belgium
Chairs	Andre De Wolf Philip Peyton Michel Struys	Chicago, USA Melbourne, Australia Groningen, NL
Co-chairs	Patrick Wouters Joseph Orr Jan Verbeke Koen De Decker	Ghent, Belgium Salt Lake City, USA Aalst, Belgium Aalst, Belgium
Host	Geert Vandenbroucke	Departmental chair

Welcome Reception
Friday September 29
@ 19:30h, Belfort,
Aalst

